ISSN 1522–0613

- The three-quarter-power scaling of extinction risk in Late Pleistocene mammals, and a new theory of the size selectivity of extinction 1–22
L. V. Polishchuk
- The evolution of cooperation on fragmented landscapes: the spatial Hamilton rule 23–33
F. Zhang, Y. Tao, Z. Li and C. Hui
- On nestedness in ecological networks 35–46
L.N. Joppa, J.M. Montoya, R. Solé, J. Sanderson and S.L. Pimm
- The evolution of phenotypic plasticity in response to anthropogenic disturbance 47–66
E. Crispo, J.D. DiBattista, C. Correa, X. Thibert-Plante, A.E. McKellar, A.K. Schwartz, D. Berner, L.F. De León and A.P. Hendry
- The rate and pattern of tail autotomy in five species of Puerto Rican anoles 67–88
K.R. Lovely, D.L. Mahler and L.J. Revell
- Sex allocation in a species with paternal genome elimination: the roles of crowding and female age in the mealybug Planococcus citri 89–104
L. Ross, M.B.W. Langenhof, I. Pen, L.W. Beukeboom, S.A. West and D.M. Shuker
- Morph-specific variation in intersexual genetic correlations in an intra-specific mimicry system 105–118
J.K. Abbott and E.I. Svensson
- Discrimination among floral resources by an obligately pollinating seed-eating moth: host-marking signals and pollination and florivory cues 119–129
K.C. Horn and J.N. Holland
- Defence against the herbicide RoundUp® predates its widespread use 131–141
R.S. Baucom and R. Mauricio
- The effects of relatedness on offspring sex ratio in pollinating fig wasps 143–150
H.-Y. Hu, G.-C. Ma, L.-M. Niu, Y.-G. Fu, Z.-Q. Peng and D.-W. Huang
